

Density differences in levels across boundary windows

Each point compares all eligible construction on the two sides within the stated distance

95% confidence intervals; standard errors clustered by ward pair. Same neighborhood controls, zoning, segment and year fixed effects. Each window re-estimates a single side indicator without distance bins or slopes. This is not the paper's nearest-band coefficient.